

Language Development:

1. Listening Skills:

- Engage in listening activities such as storytelling, audio clips, and rhymes.
- Follow simple instructions given orally.

2. Speaking Skills:

- Encourage participation in class discussions.
- Practice speaking in complete sentences.
- Introduce new vocabulary through conversations and thematic units.

3. Reading Readiness

- Introduction to letters and their sounds.
- Recognizing sight words.
- Simple word recognition activities and phonics exercises.

4. Writing Skills

- Basic pencil grip and control.
- Tracing letters and simple words.
- Copying and writing simple sentences.

Mathematics:

1. Number Recognition and Counting

- Identify numbers 1-20.
- Counting objects up to 20.
- Understanding basic concepts of more/less, big/small.

2. Basic Operations

- Addition and subtraction within 10.
- Introduction to basic shapes and patterns.

3. Measurement and Comparison

- Understanding concepts of length, weight, and capacity through hands-on activities.
- Comparing sizes and quantities.

Social-Emotional Development:

1. Self-awareness

- Identifying and expressing emotions.
- Understanding personal strengths and weaknesses.

2. Social Skills

- Sharing and taking turns.
- Respecting others' feelings and belongings.
- Working cooperatively in group activities.

3. Emotional Regulation

- Introducing simple relaxation techniques.
- Teaching problem-solving skills for conflicts.

Creativity and Imagination:

1. Art and Craft

- Exploring different art mediums like coloring, drawing, and finger painting.
- Engaging in simple craft activities to develop fine motor skills.

2. Music and Movement

- Singing nursery rhymes and simple songs.
- Dancing and movement activities to music.

### Physical Development:

1. Gross Motor Skills

- Engaging in outdoor play activities such as running, jumping, and climbing.
- Basic ball handling skills.

2. Fine Motor Skills

- Practicing cutting with safety scissors.
- Manipulating small objects like building blocks and puzzles.

Environmental Awareness:

1. Nature and Science Exploration

- Observing and exploring the natural world.
- Basic understanding of concepts like seasons, weather, and plants.

2. Community and Cultural Awareness

- Learning about different cultures and traditions through stories and activities.
- Understanding basic community roles and responsibilities.

Assessment:

1. Observation-based Assessment

- Continuous observation of students' progress in various skills.
- Informal assessments through class participation and activities.

2. Feedback and Communication

- Providing constructive feedback to both students and parents.
- Regular parent-teacher communication to discuss progress and areas for improvement.

*This syllabus focuses on holistic development, providing a balanced approach to academics, social-emotional learning, creativity, and physical development suitable for young learners at the Class 1 level.